from San Francisco for this port on the 3d inst.; the ship T. F. Oakes on the 5th; the barkentine S. G. Wilder and the schooner Aloha on the 9th. The brig Lurline and the bark Annie Johnson sailed for Hilo on the 4th and 5th respectively. The schooner Allen A sailed for Mahukona on the 5th.

The schooner W. F. Jewett. Johnson, master, arrived yesterday morning, thirty-six days from the Sound. Light winds and calms was the experience of the vessel up to within three days of arrival, at which time stormy weather came on and continued up to arrival. The W. F. Jewett is at Dillingham's wharf. She has a large cargo of lumber for the railroad, and also shingles for Allen & Robinson.

The barkentine Katie Fleckenger arrived from Kahului February 22d, says the San Francisco Examiner, and was towed into port by the Sea King. While towing over the bar the fresh southwest wind drove the vessel faster than the tug. The result was that the towline doubled under the vessel's bottom, and when it was pulled taut again the bight fouled the barkentine's rudder. Before it could be cleared the vessel's steering gear was considerably damaged.

POSITIVE DENIALS

Work Done for the Navy at Mare Island is Not Defective.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.-It is positively denied at the Navy Department that any report had been received from Admiral Beardslee, commanding the Pacific Station | The New and Fine Al Steel Steamship and now at Honolulu, condemning the character of the work at the Mare Island Navy Yard, or that Secretary Herbert has ordered an investigation of affairs at the navy Auckland, on or about yard. It is also said that, so far as the Department is informed the work done in that yard is fully up to the standard elsewhere. Touching the report that the Philadelphia's starboard engines broke date. down on the trip to Honolulu, the Secretary himself has stated that Admiral Beardslee's report made no report of any such mishap, but attributed the delay in the passrge mainly to inferior coal.

As for the Boston, which is also cited as an example of bad work, it is said the vessel has been lying | Of the Oceanic Steamship Company will at the Mare Island Navy Yard for | be due at Honolulu, from San Francisco, months out of commission, although on or about ready for service and in good order. She simply lacks men to make up

The Bennington is being held at Acapulco, according to Admiral Ramsay, Chief of the Navigation Bureau, not because she is not in perfect order, but because this is a convenient port at which a vessel THROUGH TICKETS TO ALL POINTS may be ordered at short notice to proceed either to South or Central America, or to cross the Pacific. As for the Yorktown, which is said to be suffering from leaky boiler tubes, it is said that this is probably true, but it is not in any sense The H. F. Glade has commenced a reflection on the character of the Mare Island work, that the tubes should leak after the vessel crossed the Pacific and had been in hard service on foreign coasts.

Wheat Around the Born.

New York, Feb. 25.—The first cargo of wheat that has come around Cape Horn in thirty years, or since the trans-continental roads monopolized the trade, is due to arrive here tomorrow on the ship The Kaala did not sail yesterday of about 2000 tons, and is consigned S.
